There is a boy in my carpool who is making fun of some younger boys in the car during the ride home from school. If I say something to him he will probably just make fun of me as well. What can I do about this?

ASK THE MENAHEL

You are certainly not the only one who is dealing with a problem such as this. It is very important for the boy who is bothering others to be told clearly that what he is doing is wrong. Almost everyone wants to correct their mistakes. It takes some courage but the best thing would be for you to tell him straight that what he is doing is not right. If that doesn't help or if it's too difficult for you to do, then you should mention the problem to your parents and/or your Rebbe or Menahel who can help you with this. Hatzlacha!

Rabbi Hirsch

A NOTE FROM RABBI HEXTER

It is beautiful to see the excitement our talmidim have, coming to Cheder each day. They enter their classrooms eagerly awaiting to learn new pesukim, hear an inspiring lesson, and are overjoyed to be with their Rebbi and friends. In our 1st and 2nd grades, we recently launched a four week "Already Ready" Erev Shabbos program. This program encourages boys to help out at home and get ready for Shabbos. Boys that participate, receive a special "I was Already Ready" card on Sunday mornings. After collecting four cards, they earn a special treat. Thank you to the many parents for sending in such beautiful notes. It is always nice to hear how eager our talmidim are to help get ready for Shabbos. Our next program will be the Kol Yaakov Shabbos davening program. Look out for details.
